EAT LOGIC 2015

Eat Logic are an eight-piece electro-acoustic jazz outfit comprising sax, trumpet/ flugel, keyboards, guitar, two female vocalists, drums and bass.

'Sax player Roberto Manzin's solos have something of the chromatic excitement of Brecker and the soulfulness of Sanborn.' London Jazz, Alison Bentley

'He [Manzin] has to be heard to be believed!' Jazzwise, Jon Newey

'..... outstanding performer in the person of Alison Limerick whose soulful singing gives depth and distinction...a fine stage presence too.' The Times, John Percival

'Singer Anita Kelsey, a flexible, powerful and intelligent soul singer....provided some of the most integrated and effective music of the night' The Guardian, John Fordham

'John Myers is the reason why discovering new music from new artists is cool, with a voice as delicate as D'Angelo...his range when it comes to creativity hears and sees no boundaries'

Blues & Soul

'Alison Limerick showed a voice of astonishing range giving extraordinary richness to her low notes and lyricism to her high ones.' The Daily Telegraph, Fernau Hall
